1 Pool party ready

The second you hit sun-drenched rooftop club your powder bronzer starts to slip. So we've traded up to this gloriously dewy and totally reliable bronzer gel. Hot with these fash-flash cream eyeshadows too. Zing!

Estée Lauder limited-edition Bronze Goddess Bronzing Gel, $66 and Bronze Goddess Liquid Eyeshadow in (from top) Molten Bronze, Sand Shimmer, Ultra Violet and Aqua Flash, $44 each (1800 061 326)

The yes list

Grazia beauty HQ tries and tests the very best of what's new...NOW!

2 It's a mirac-oil

For far too long, abundantly-locked girls have been showing off the frizz-less and glossy effects of Macadamia Healing Oil on their thick hair. Finally there's a featherweight spray version for those of us working with wispier, finer hair. It's oh-so-light and humidity-proof. We're better tressed and so impressed.
