STEPHANIE CARTA AT AMANDA WAKELEY

4. You're hands on with your make-up

You splurged on that make-up brush set, but that doesn't stop you applying your eyeshadow with your fingertips. In the rearview mirror. We're all about laidback glamour - plus the smudgy-smoky eye is pretty hot right now too. Just don't forget that cleanliness is next to fabulousness, so keep an antibacterial gel such as Dettol Healthy Touch Instant Hand Sanitizer in Original, $3.39, 1800 022 046, on hand if you use your mitts to apply make-up.

5. You can't bear to throw away your crimper

You used to model your hairstyles after Kylie Minogue (circa Neighbours), long before Jennifer Aniston's mop became cool. Thanks to Kyles and her '80s film-clip gold, you still have your size-of-a-shoebox crimper in your cupboard. With no plans of throwing it out. And why would you? Those crinkle-cut waves we've loved for so long are making a comeback. If your ancient crimper short-circuits your electricity, update with the Babyliss Pro Mighty Mini Crimper, $44.95, 1800 251 215.

6. You love a loud lipstick...

Especially considering it's make-up that takes all of, say, ten seconds to apply - leaving you more time to hit the beach. Or watch the cricket. Try MAC Matte Lipstick in Lady Danger, $35, 1800 061 326, maccosmetics.com.au.

7. Smells like Aussie spirit

It's official. You heart fragrance. In fact, most of you won't leave home without it. According to stats from our major department stores, woody oriental scents and floral fragrances such as Chloé EDP, $130 (50mL), 1800 812 663, are the most popular down under, and since smoking has been banned in pubs, we can actually appreciate them.

8. You're mad about mascara

If foundation is the undergarment of your make-up bag, then mascara is the little black dress. Considering what a fresh-faced bunch we are, a couple of coats can brighten even a bare complexion. Experts suggest bending your wand at a right angle to maximise every little lash as you apply. We like Maybelline NY The Colossal Volum' Express Mascara in Classic Black, $17.95, 1300 369 327.
